CHOPPED COMPETITION

Just like the TV show, CHOPPED at the Muddy Chef Challenge assembles a team of talented amateur Chefs who must make a gourmet meal from a box of mystery ingredients. EXCEPT - The kitchen is gone! Chopped competitors must pack their Land Rovers with everything they need to prepare, cook, and serve a meal from only what they carry in the vehicle.

Make no mistake, this is an exceptionally challenging contest and requires split second decision making – all against the countdown timer.

Just like with the TV show, we set up an ingredient pantry to allow chefs to create something amazing.

Think this is for you? Bring it! You must pre-register on the MCC registration page. Chopped is limited to 10 teams.
